Mobile Deposit Terms and Agreement

Description of Service:

Mobile Remote Deposit is designed to allow you to make deposits of checks ("original checks") to your accounts from home or other remote locations by scanning the original checks and delivering the digital images and associated deposit information ("images") to us or our processor with your Mobile Device. After you login to Mobile Banking, you may use Mobile Remote Deposit if you are eligible. By accepting the terms and conditions, you acknowledge and accept the rules and requirements of this agreement. The terms of this agreement are in addition to any account agreements, disclosures and other documents in effect from time to time governing your account including but not limited to the U. S. Eagle Federal Credit Union Membership Application and Agreement and the Online Banking Agreement.

Limits:

We may establish limits on the dollar amount and/or number of items or deposits from time to time. If you attempt to initiate a deposit in excess of these limits, we may reject your deposit. If we permit you to make a deposit in excess of these limits, such deposit will still be subject to the terms of this agreement, and we will not be obligated to allow such a deposit at other times.

Eligible items:

You agree to scan and deposit only checks (i.e., drafts drawn on a credit union, savings and loan or bank and payable on demand.)

Check Endorsement Requirements:

Prior to scanning a check, you will restrictively endorse the back on the check with your signature and the words "for deposit only" before scanning an image. Checks must be endorsed as written to the payee. Checks must be endorsed within endorsement guidelines. Third party checks may not be accepted for deposit

You agree that you will not use Mobile Remote Deposit to deposit:

- Checks payable to any person or entity other than you (i.e., payable to another party and then endorsed to you).
- Checks payable to you and another party who is not a joint owner on the account.
- Checks that contain evidence of alteration, or that you know or suspect, or should know or suspect, are fraudulent or otherwise not authorized by the owner of the account on which the check is drawn.

Receipt of deposit:

All images processed for deposit through Mobile Remote Deposit will be treated as "deposits" under your current Account Agreement with us and will be subject to all terms of the Account Agreement. When we receive an image, we will confirm receipt via email to you. We shall not be deemed to have received the image for deposit until we have confirmed receipt to you. Confirmation does not mean that the image contains no errors. We are not responsible for any image that we do not receive. Following receipt, we may process the image by preparing a "substitute check" or clearing the item as an image. We reserve the right, at our sole and absolute discretion, to reject any image for remote deposit into your account. We will notify you of rejected images.

Storage, security and destruction/disposal of the original check:

After you receive confirmation that we have received an image, you must securely store the original check for sixty (60) days after transmission to us and make the original check accessible to us at our request. Upon our request from time to time, you will deliver to us within two (2) business days, at your expense, the requested original check in your possession. If not provided in a timely manner, such amount will be reversed from your account. Promptly after the sixty (60) retention period expires, you must destroy the original check by first marking it "VOID" and then destroying it by cross-cut shredding or another commercially acceptable means of destruction. After destruction of the original check, the image will be the sole evidence of the original check. You agree that you will never re-present the original check. You understand that you are responsible if anyone is asked to make a payment based on an original check that has already been paid.
